Global Compact's ten principles

Human Rights

- Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights;
- Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

Labour

- Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
- Principle 4: the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;
- Principle 5: the effective abolition of child labour; and
- Principle 6: the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Environment

- Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
- Principle 8: undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
- Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

Anti-Corruption

- Principle 10: Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

The Sustainable Development Goals

NOTE: By using the SDGs as an overall framework, UN Global Compact's 10 principles for responsible conduct are still addressed. The graphic is an illustration of how the 10 UNGC principles are reflected in the SDGs. Do be aware that it is a mere illustration: Because of the interdependent nature of the SDGs, each of the 10 Global Compact principles may be reflected in more than one SDG.
